EmergencyCare Is Hiring: Entry Level Non-Emergent Call Taker

Regular Full-Time Position

Hours: M-F Day Shift

Erie, PA, US

Position Summary

The Non-Emergent Call Taker receives, evaluates, and processes non-emergency transport calls coming in from the general public, nursing homes and medical facilities. After entering the pertinent information into the CAD (Computer Aided Dispatch) system, the incumbent then initiates appropriate action based on the caller's request. The incumbent performs any/all follow-up action as required. This position acts as a liaison between the Patient Services Department and the Communication (Dispatch) Center.

In addition, the Non-Emergent Call taker serves as a customer service representative when corresponding with many businesses, and therefore must always exhibit an upbeat and professional demeanor. This position requires the ability to maintain composure and professionalism under stressful conditions.
